

Criteria and Qualifications
AGS Aging Conference
Scholarship Award
Arkansas Gerontological Society

Qualifications

- Must be a retiree with a background in the field of aging and/or
- A student actively enrolled in an accredited higher academic institution.
- 18 years or older
- Demonstrate financial need.
- Submission of application on candidate's behalf to the Selection & Scholarship committee.

Criteria

- Must provide document evidence relative to student or retiree qualifications.
- Must provide narrative essay regarding purpose and benefit vision for attending conference.
- Upon approval of application candidate will be reviewed by Selection & Scholarship committee.
- Selection & Scholarship committee will provide given year selected recipient to the Arkansas Gerontological Society Board for final approval vote.
- The AGS Aging Conference Scholarship Award will be presented to the selected in writing by the President & Board of Directors prior to the Aging Conference.
- Scholarship includes registration only
- Scholarship decisions made by the committee are binding.